Using her bare feet, her loop station, and her electric cello, Brianna Tam envelops listeners in a mesmerizing and dynamic symphonic realm, drawing them in with her authenticity and the heart she brings to every performance.

Based in Los Angeles, Brianna has captivated audiences at events ranging from immersive headliner concerts to transcendent EDM shows. She delivered a riveting TEDx Talk performance, was selected as a Top Shelf artist for NPR's 2023 Tiny Desk Contest, and recently performed at a special event hosted by Freethink Media celebrating the wonders of space and innovation.

In the fall of 2025, Brianna represented the USA Pavilion as an Artist-in-Residence at the Japan World Expo, creating and performing original works for an international audience.

A multifaceted artist, Brianna recently composed for and appeared in two national Lexus commercial campaigns – a broadcast television spot and a social media release – bringing her cinematic sound and on-screen presence together in a striking fusion of music and storytelling.

Previously, she was the recipient of a grant from South Arts in partnership with the National Endowment for the Arts and the North Carolina Arts Council, allowing her to conduct an Artist Residency with the Blowing Rock Art & History Museum.

Brianna's gift for building worlds through sound shines through her film compositions, including Rescued Hearts (2025), Secret Game (2025), Wild Fire (2023), Healing Waters (2022), and The Tannery (post-production). Her score for Wild Fire earned "Best Soundtrack" at the 2023 Red Dirt Film Festival and "Outstanding Original Soundtrack" at the 2024 New Jersey Film Festival. Her music was also featured in the official trailer for Downton Abbey.

Her inspiring single "Bioluminescence" was awarded First Place in the 2022 International Songwriting Competition. Brianna has composed for companies such as Eternal Music Group and Artlist Original. Brianna continues to captivate audiences worldwide with her innovative artistry and emotionally evocative soundscapes.
